ROYALAIR GERMAN SHEPHERDS "Experience the Difference of the Large, Old-fashioned German Shepherd bred for the Family "Typical of old lines, our dogs are considered oversized for today's standards. They have straight backs and wide heads, as well as big bone and a calmer, family style temperament while still being protective. These dogs excel as: search and rescue dogs, high level obedience, guide dogs for the blind. However, size is secondary to longevity, brains, and athletic ability. We are proud of our OFA certified hips & elbows, With a larger history of OFA EXCELLENT DOGS than just about any breeder in the US. I ALSO TEST DOGS FOR DM- so "all" royalair puppies should not exhibit DM in their later years. Most Males dogs are Cardiac tested as well..ROYALAIR breeds dogs that we feel have superior brain power, you will be amazed at the ability of these shepherds... Bringing back what the shepherd used to be is my passion. All content of this listing belongs to the Owner in this Listing! Copyright © All Rights Reserved.
