Von der Sauk

<http://www.vondersauk.com>

Von der Sauk is a small German Shepherd breeder in the Midlands of South Carolina.

Von der Sauk German Shepherds Quality homes are what we look for. We are family owned and operated and our dogs aren't just "kennel" dogs. Our family is shown on our about US page. Our breeding program combines the best of imported bloodlines to produce structure and impeccable temperaments which allows them to be the perfect addition to any family home or working home. Please check our site for show line litters as well as world class working lines from some of the strongest working dogs out there. All our dogs are also family dogs! That should be kept in mind when considering us. What's best about us, is we are CURRENT. We actively compete, show, and also are giving seminars all across the USA.
