My puppies are born and fully raised in the house

Kazeti German Shepherds Many people wonder how we decided on Kazeti, we wanted our affix to be very personal both to us and our dogs, so we decided to make it up using letters from the names of our wonderful shepherds. I am a small breeder hoping to breed 3-4 litters of excellently bred German Shepherds per year. I like to do things the way I believe is right, all of our dogs live within the home in a family environment. They are my best friends and pets. My puppies are born and fully raised in the house, and are not left alone day or night for the first 14 days. They are handled from day one and mix and interact with our adult dogs too. They leave well handled, confident, socialised and well used to all household activities including children. medianet_width="600"; medianet_height="120"; medianet_crid="137148174";
