<http://www.austerlitzshepherds.com>

We are a small hobby breeder of German Shepherd Dogs.

Our dogs are exclusively from German bloodlines and are bred to the exacting German (FCI) breed standard. We uphold only the highest standards in the health, temperament and structure of our dogs, as well as in their care. We are experienced trainers as well as breeders, and we are proud to show our own home-bred dogs in conformation, schutzhund, herding, agility and obedience events. We are breeders of high in trial competitors in schutzhund, agility and obedience, and numerous regional winners in conformation. We offer puppies, young and retired adults, and stud service, all of the highest quality. Follow the links above to explore our breeding program, our services, and most of all, our dogs!
