Family Protection Dogs

K9 Security Ireland provides high quality, social dogs that are bred, raised and trained specifically to obey and protect their owners. Similar to a child enrolled in martial arts classes, our pups start training at a very young age. By the time they're adults, just like the child, our dogs will be confident, disciplined, obedient, respectful and very well capable of defending on command. A professionally trained dog from K9 Security Ireland will be an alarm, deterrent, defender and companion all at once. It will be loving, obedient, well behaved, easy to handle and always ready to defend you and your family. All content of this listing belongs to the Owner in this Listing!
