Rising S K9 was formed from a passion for protection and security.

A PASSION FOR PROTECTION Rising S K9 was formed from a passion for protection and security. Clyde Scott has been in the business of protecting families for more than a decade. With a devotion to family security; Clyde started with underground bunkers, safe rooms and storm shelters more than 10 years ago. Though he didn't create the idea of underground safety solutions; his company quickly rose to the top of the industry largely due to his commitment to improving the product quality, his ingenuity and his willingness to put safety above profit. A well trained dog will be cross trained with Schutzhund / IPO skills as well as KNPV skills. (KNPV is the organization that certifies police dogs and military service dogs with their handlers.) Having this specific training heightens its ability to not only respond to commands, but also reason for itself and make smart decisions at times where you may not be capable.
