My German Shepherd dogs are known for their great temperament and World class pedigrees.

Von Savannah German Shepherds The German Shephard Dog is the 2nd most popular breeds in homes today. People love them for their intelligence, trainability, protection and service work. Von Savannah is a small family of the highest quality West German show line dogs. My dogs are known for their great temperament and World class pedigrees. I only have one or two litters per year but the puppies are from well respected and titled parents. The GSD requires daily exercise and enjoys activities with their family. If you are considering purchasing a dog or puppy, please be sure you have the time and patience to spend training them and providing stimulating exercise for them. Feel free to call and ask questions about the puppies or pedigrees at von Savannah. If I do not have what you are looking for I can recommend other reputable breeders who may.
