Family & Personal Protection Dogs

Von Falconer K-9 Training Facility "If you have the passion to train dogs or have a pet to communicate with, it is an honest world. A loyal companion loves you unconditionally and will jump in an old car or a new one just to be with you. They don't care about your religion or the colors of your skin, what your political party is or what sex you are. If you have a disability they are there to serve you and they do not care how old you are either. They just want to please. They are human's Best Friend and that is the true story." (Eric Falconer- Master Trainer) Von Falconer K9 is a professional training facility nestled in the beautiful Santa Cruz Mountains, we are dedicated to education and training people and their dogs.
