DDR German Shepherd Breeders We are a small breeding kennel located in the beautiful Northwest of Washington State. We are nestled on 13 secluded acres of our privately owned old growth forest land. Here there are wet lands, grass fields, a private lake, orchard trees, and even a pond. Our Dogs enjoy plenty of fresh air, running free along serene nature trails, romping in the fields and swimming. They are happy, healthy and vibrant individuals that thrive on their life here. Our beautiful puppies are born in our home as part of our family in a very special birthing room that has been designed for the comfort as well as safety for the mothers and new babies. It is my goal as a breeder to ensure to produce only quality, healthy, vibrant, and happy puppies that are warm in character, capable of working in a variety of fields from loyal personal companion, to the highest competition level of sporting dog to protector and defenders of our Law Enforcement communities.
