Law Enforcement & Home Protection Dogs

Justice Shepherds is a Family Ran Hobby Kennel In the small town Of Monroe, Oregon. Our goals are to produce the top Working and Home Protection dogs. It is a daily routine of feeding, medical care, clean up, training, and exercise. Each dog must be worked on a daily routine of obedience, no stress and free run time. We have weekly training of obedience and agility, and stops at the vet for a weigh in. Daily care of one dog consists of about 3 to 4 hours each day. In that 3 to 4 hours a day, there is a lot of personal contact with the dog to maintain a good working relationship with our dogs. In the weekly training there is Schutzhund work and work on all different types of agility equipment to keep the dogs used to working on any surface that they might encounter. Obedience is our number one goal. Our dogs are around a lot of different people on a daily basis, so each dog must be in top form at all times.
