Specializing in Oversized German Shepherds

Walsh's Windy Acres Shepherds is located in the beautiful area surrounding Cresco, Iowa in the northeast of the state. This is south of Rochester, MN, southwest of LaCrosse, WI, and northeast of Des Moines. We are very proud to live here and to raise such wonderful dogs as the German Shepherd. Walsh's Windy Acres Shepherds, where we specialize in raising oversized and large-boned Shepherds. We also offer long-haired or regular coats for your own preference. We are nestled between the rolling hills and the steep bluffs of the beautiful state of Iowa. In past years, we have raised a few large-boned Shepherds, a small number of hogs, and 4H calves for our kids to take to the County Fair. We have decided to go back into breeding the old type of large-boned and oversized German Shepherd that I had grown up with. With our youngest daughter Ashley's help (who loves to play with the puppies), they are well cared for and socialized with all the activity that country life brings. Our males and females are either x-rayed or OFA'd. You will receive a written health and hip guarantee with your pup when they go to their new home. Each puppy will have his or her Registration paper from the AKC Kennel Club. All content of this listing belongs to the Owner in this Listing! Copyright © All Rights Reserved.
