Del Cono Sur German Shepherds is dedicated to preserving the breed

Del Cono Sur German Shepherds Del Cono Sur German Shepherds is dedicated to preserving the breed from getting stock direct from Argentina. Argentina is second in the world for producing Germany Shepherds number one being Germany. This does not mean that the quality is second, we feel it is just as good. Our breeding stock before we buy is tested by us personally and hips and elbows retaken before we buy and ship the dogs home. We are not a big kennel and only produce 2 litters a year. All of our pups are home raised, vet checked, will be on a series of wormings and shots and temperament tested. We guarantee your pup with full written out guarantees and stand by our dogs. Not every litter will produce a show dog and that is not our intent. Our focus is healthy, stable, clear headed, dogs that you can take anywhere and at the same time compete with. We try to match up the right dog for you so we take time to listen to your needs. Please look at our website to see our "philosophy" and articles Ricardo has written and been published in magazines. We try to educate the public on the breed because of so many types of german shepherds and try to find the right match for YOU. Are dogs have been used for family, show , search and rescue, protection and schutzhund. We hope one of our dogs will become your new family member.
