INDIAN SPRINGS RANCH

<http://akcblackgermanshepherds.com>

I raise all black AKC German Shepherds.

Indian Springs Ranch Their daily life consists to running in the hills and fields with a good swim in the river to cool off. I drive around the ranch in what I call a APV (All Purpose Vehicle). It is a highly modified 48 volt electric all terrain. The dogs sometimes ride in the back which has a 16 sq./ ft. bed. With all the wild game around, you can sometimes ride up on deer and wild turkeys. I keep deer and turkey feeders out year long. I built a large 25' observation deck on a hill by the river where you can easily call game with an electronic caller. There have been many a day when you can hear the coyotes at 360 deg. One pack will start on the left, then another starts trying to outdo them, before long - you have "surround sound". ACE, KING, LADY, JACK and TENNY try to out howl the pack leaders and they can put on quite a show - You won't see this on the "Dog Whisperer". The German Shepherd is a natural herder as witnessed by them sometimes herding stray cattle from the ranch next door. My neighbor who has raised horses and herding dogs for over 50 years told me - "The German Shepherd may not be the best dog for any one discipline but there is no other breed that can cover all tasks better" and he's right. A very IMPRESSIVE DOG with their BLACK COAT and ALMOND EYES. All content of this listing belongs to the Owner in this Listing! Copyright © All Rights Reserved.
