German Shepherd Obedience Training - Kentucky

Down The Leash Dog Training Kentucky Central Kentucky Lexington, Paris, Cynthiana Private one-on-one training is our most flexible, extensible option. Private sessions offer customized training great for basic manners, in-home obedience, behavior issues, or any combination thereof. We will come to your house and help you work through any behavior problem at any stage of your dog's development. We work with new puppies as well as dogs that you've been struggling with for years. Most common problems start in the home and are best addressed in the home. If you are struggling with any of the following, private sessions are probably the place to start. Every dog and owner combination doesn't always fit the group training mold. Perhaps your dog is a little shy or sound sensitive. Maybe you've got a crazy schedule. Whatever the reason, private sessions are the solution. Once you've worked through the immediate problem, you may want to continue training. In that case, we also offer, and recommend, group classes.
