RJ kennels breeds for and from TOP Quality German Shepherds.

RJ Kennels German Shepherd DogsOur foundation is based on TOP German, European and American Working and Show bloodlines. We are dedicated to the improvement of the German Shepherd Dog breed as a whole, selecting choice animals when planning all our breedings.RJ puppies are all home raised, and temperament tested, socialized, and evaluated to find the best match between puppy and buyer. We pride ourselves on placing each pup in the best possible home for a particular buyer. We believe this allows both owner and new puppy to be happiest and properly matched. We will be pleased to give referrals to prospective buyers when we do not have puppies available, or consider that the right animal for a certain person can be found at another quality breeders home.All content of this listing belongs to the Owner in this Listing!
