Obedience training for German Shepherds and for all breeds.

vom Haus Berg German Shepherd Dogs vom Haus Berg German Shepherd Dogs and Brush Creek Training Kennels is located on 20 acres just south of Stillwater and we have another location in McAlester, Oklahoma. We offer obedience training for all breeds. We have boarding in Stillwater and basic group obedience classes in Stillwater. We raise German Shepherds and when puppies are available you can find them in our Current Litters section. Our niche is the family raised and socialized German Shepherd with a temperament suitable for the family lifestyle. We strongly believe that if you want a German Shepherd that will keep your family safe at night, then put them in the house with the family so they can protect and warn against intruders. Keeping them outside is natural during the day but they can only do so much if outside protecting the grass.
