Finally, fashion for your dog that functions for your convenience. With the PooBoss K9 Utility Vest you are always prepared for the unexpected. Our patent pending utility vest allows your dog to carry its own poo bag, as well as your personal items. Simply pull a disposable pet waste bag (not included) from the discreet dispenser then drop the used bag in the mesh "stow and go" pocket. Now your dog can carry the poo so you don't have to. The separate utility pocket for personal items can hold things such as, doggie treats, wet wipes, a cell phone, keys, etc… For added safety and visibility, we've incorporated wide reflective strips to warn oncoming traffic of your presence; making it the ideal safety vest for your dog. The PooBoss K9 Utility Vest is to be used with your dog's existing collar or harness style lead (not included). Our Vests are available in four sizes (see chart), Velcro closure around neck and quick-release buckles with adjustable straps around the belly make sizing simple. We offer multiple color options and two different linings to accommodate just about any personality and climate condition. The lightweight "plain" lining is great for warm weather, while the extra thickness of the "quilted" lining is ideal for colder weather. Walk safely, securely and keep your dignity. Be green and be seen… But don't get caught holding the bag.   medianet_width='600'; medianet_height= '250'; medianet_crid='516441662';
