We use a variety of training tools, such as: food, praise.....

Bay State Kennel & Training Center Mike has been involved with dog handling and training since 1990 and has trained well over 100,000 dogs. He attended Cornell University's, "Solving Canine Behavior Problems", program. He is also recognized by the AKC as an evaluator for the Canine Good Citizen Program. His experience includes training all breeds for home pets, security dogs, schutzhund competition dogs and Police K-9s. Mike is a DVG Certified Training Director and Level 2 Certified Trial Decoy. Mike works with every client as an individual because all dogs are different and all people have different needs for their training program. Basic Obedience Level I 6 week course we go over 5 basic commands Heel, Sit, Stay Come when called, and Down. We also discuss manners the dog should have, jumping, pulling, trash picking etc. we explain how to correct these behaviors. Over the 6 weeks. Basic Obedience Level II 6 week Course the dog should know the basic commands above. We start the class with review of Level I and work on come when called with distractions down on command and down stay with more distractions. In-Kennel Program Your dog boards with us at our home and kennel for a period of 4 weeks, we cover all of The Canine Good Citizen Program exercises. When your dogs training is complete we set up an appointment for you and your family to come and have a private training lesson with one of our trainers and then once per week consecutively after your dog returns home. This is a very successful program for those owners that do not have time and the proper consistency that is needed. As all of our training programs this is a positive training method with positive results. All content of this listing belongs to the Owner in this Listing! Copyright © All Rights Reserved.
