Personal Protection Dogs are A1K9's Speciality

A1K9 personal protection dogsThe founders of A1K9 are among the most experienced personal protection dog trainers in the world.A vocation that has been a passion of ours for almost 30 years.With more than 50 years' experience between us, we pioneered many of the techniques now used in this industry and remain at the cutting edge of its development while passing on our hard-earned knowledge and expertise to our staff. In fact, the combined team boasts over 100 years' experience in dog training.Charles takes ultimate responsibility for the training programme at A1K9 and sets the highest possible standards in the development of both dogs and staff.Charles and Gaynor are both members of the British Institute of Professional Dog Trainers. In addition Charles is an accessor for the National Training Inspectorate for Professional Dog Users and Gaynor is a qualified canine behaviourist (member of the Canine and Feline Behaviour Association) and was voted behaviourist of the year in 2014.Each team member at A1K9 is put through a structured and rigorous training regime to ensure they master the process of training and conditioning the protection dogs that we supply.
