German Shepherd Puppies Texas

Fireside K9's Experienced Breeders I went into breeding GSD because I believe in supporting the breed and also putting out a pup that is a family member with little to no health issues. So that families can get the most out of their pups. I also want Dogs that are well rounded and can go into any direction. Happy, Healthy Bloodline I am breeding the long haired Import as of right now and hoping to add to my new bloodline in the future. All of our dogs are health tested before breeding. Only the best get to support the future of the GSD. A Furever Friend These dogs are bred to be forever parts of a family or work force. We will have multiple levels of drive, something for everyone.
