"German shepherds...the best at most things and second best at everything else" -Sprock

German Shepherd BreederGerman shepherds are one of the true joys of life. They can perform many tasks and can provide all the love and companionship that you could ask for. As German shepherd breeders, we know this joy firsthand and have the pleasure of offering this same joy to you. Healthy Dogs And PuppiesEvery large boned German shepherd puppy that we have comes from top German and European bloodlines. They are genetically built to be healthy. This is not enough of course. The rest of the equation is the top notch care that we provide for our puppies so that they can grow to be healthy and strong. Their bloodlines make them predisposed to good health and our efforts just allow them to live up to their potential. Family DogsOur German Shepherd puppies are born and bred to be family dogs. They are good around children and are already accustomed to being around people because of their upbringing. Our puppies are around people from day one so they develop a comfort level and a trust of people that makes them open to new people and new environments. The move to your home will be a simple adjustment for them. All content of this listing belongs to the Owner in this Listing! Copyright © All Rights Reserved.
