Von Der Otto German Shepherds Von Der Otto German Shepherds Specializes In Having The Best German Shepherd Puppies and German Shepherd Dogs For Protection of Children, Families and Single Women. We are Breeders That Offer Some Of The Finest German Shepherds And German Shepherd Puppies For Sale In The Dallas, Austin And Fort Worth Areas Of Texas. Von der Otto German Shepherds is a family owned business with the personal touch not offered at most kennels. We started several years ago buying our first female to start our business. Before entering into the business we spent years researching the different bloodlines of German Shepherd dogs. Working with different police departments assisted us in our search for the quality of German Shepherds we wanted to breed. Throughout the years of owning and working with German Shepherds we have been around both the German bloodlines and the American bloodlines. In our experience the American lines do not have the same qualifications offered by the German lines. All content of this listing belongs to the Owner in this Listing!
