We are located in a small town just outside Charlotte, North Carolina.

We take pride in our dogs and what they are learning and have accomplished. Becoming a good working dog owner takes a lot of time and passion. Each time we work with one of our dogs. We understand more of how man best friend came to be. As we work to improve our working dogs. We also work to improve the German Shepherd breed. Our puppies are bred for working dogs, as well as family pets. We are located in a small town just outside Charlotte, North Carolina USA. We work to improve the German Shepherd breed. What does that mean? For us, it means starting from the ground up. Each of our dogs were picked for different reasons. We started with different working bloodlines. We study the background and temperament of their parents. We look for good sound Shepherds that we could work with. It's a partnership. We can help you and your dog.
