Locherie German Shepherds My name is Trish Sansbury and I own Locherie Kennel, which is located in Cleveland, Ohio. I have been a member of United Schutzhund Clubs of America for over 25 years. I am dedicated to breeding German Shepherd Dogs with excellent temperaments and high working ability. These dogs produce puppies who will grow up to be great family dogs and protectors. My dogs are Schutzhund titled by me, well socialized, and a part of my family. They are all house dogs and go everywhere with me. I have been dedicated to German Shepherds for over 25 years. I have personally trained and put titles on 7 German Shepherds that I have owned from 8 weeks of age or bred myself. I have competed in multiple Regional and National Competition and earned the United Schutzhund Club of America's Master Sport's Medal. Member of United Schutzhund Clubs of America
