CALICO JUNCTION GERMAN SHEPHERDS Home of AKC Registered Standard, Plush and Long Coat German Shepherds You will find that there are different types of German Shepherd dogs. They display a difference not only in their appearance, but also in their abilities and temperament. We at Calico Junction Mule Ranch are striving to keep the gene of the long coat ancestors alive, thereby keeping the old-fashioned conformation with a calm disposition while maintaining the natural protective and working instincts of the dog. We specialize in breeding and raising exceptional German Shepherds for caring, loving and responsible owners. With our standard, plush or long coat German Shepherd puppies you can be assured of acquiring a healthy, well-socialized family companion that will add many years of happiness to your home. My German Shepherds are noted for their aloof, gentle, and loving disposition, making them an excellent breed for families with children. My dogs are not in kennels and are out every day socializing with people and children that come visit us along with socializing with other animals here at the ranch. I have never seen another breed of dog that is so intelligent and versatile as the German shepherd. All content of this listing belongs to the Owner in this Listing! Copyright © All Rights Reserved.
