We train and title our own dogs in SchH, and we feel this is the only way to know what the true working characteristics of the dog are.

Herzensfreude German Shepherd Dogs Breeding Dogs Who Love to Work Herzensfreude German Shepherd Dogs (Heart's Joy) is a registered kennel with the United Schutzhund Clubs of America. We, Kathy and Mike Moacanin, have been members of USA since 1984, having trained and titled numerous dogs in that time. German Shepherd Dogs are a passion for us. We care deeply for the breed, and our desire to preserve the German Shepherd Dog is what drives our breeding program. We breed only working line dogs that have proven themselves in Schutzhund. This temperament test ensures that the dog has the nerve to do the work, the "nose" to track, the guidability necessary for all avenues of work, and the courage to defend himself and his handler. Temperament is paramount for us. Not only do our dogs excel in their work, they are also excellent with children. All content of this listing belongs to the Owner in this Listing!
